The Church encourages us to make an act of "spiritual communion," where we unite ourselves to God through prayer. It is a beautiful way to express to God our desire to be united with him when we are unable to complete that union in the reception of Holy Communion. The following prayer can be said while we view mass through online/television formats:

An Act of Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.

La Iglesia nos anima a realizar un acto de "comuni3n espiritual", donde nos unimos a Dios a trav3s de la oraci3n. Es una hermosa manera de expresarle a Dios nuestro deseo de unirnos a 3l cuando no podemos completar esa uni3n en la recepci3n de la Sagrada Comuni3n. La siguiente oraci3n se puede decir mientras vemos la misa a trav3s de los formatos en l3nea / televisi3n:

Un Acto de Comuni3n Espiritual

Creo, Jes3s m3o, que est3s real y verdaderamente en el cielo y en el Sant3simo Sacramento del Altar. Os amo sobre todas las cosas y deseo vivamente recibirte dentro de mi alma, pero no pudiendo hacerlo ahora sacramentalmente, venid al menos espiritualmente a mi coraz3n. Y como si ya os hubiese recibido, os abrazo y me uno del todo a Ti. Se3or, no permitas que jam3s me aparte de Ti. Am3n.

HUMILITY

Humility is a virtue in short supply in today’s world. And yet our reading from the prophet Zechariah describes Israel’s coming king, in whom we Christians see Jesus, as humble, riding on a colt, the foal of an ass. No great procession for our Lord and God, for he comes not on a golden chariot with banners and a great procession of soldiers and riches, but on a humble beast of burden. What a contrast to our world of designer clothes and cars; of mega-mansions and architectural embellishments. Humility is not bragging about our worldly goods or our accomplishments. Neither is it the false humility of denying that what we do well is “nothing.” It is the acknowledgment of our faults and our successes, with a humble “thank you” to compliment or criticism.

FROM THE RIVER TO THE ENDS OF THE EARTH

How we long for peace in our world! It seems we are surrounded by constant news of death and destruction, whether in our own country or abroad. We hear and we grieve, we try to give shelter to those fleeing war and crime in their own countries. We pray for them and for ourselves, that fear may not overtake us and make us do foolish things or abuse innocent people. For “[God] shall proclaim peace to the nations” (Zechariah 9:10). We can rely on this promise of peace, if we become peaceful people ourselves and do not give in to revenge or deep anger. “You are not in the flesh . . . you are in the spirit” (Romans 8:9).

COME TO ME

Some of the most comforting words in the Gospels appear in today’s reading. “Come to me, all you who labor and are burdened, and I will give you rest . . . For my yoke is easy and my burden light” (Matthew 11: 28, 30). Sometimes we carry what seem to be impossible burdens; we carry our cross. But we might be carrying the wrong cross. Our cross, we are promised, will be easy and our burden light. This might not seem to be true when we suffer the loss of a loved one, a job, our home, or our livelihood. But if we turn to Jesus, we will always find the comfort and loving kindness of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. The children look to us adults for comfort and support, for “although you have hidden these things from the wise and the learned you have revealed them to little ones” (Matthew 11:25). We can learn from children about our dependence on God.

So Jesus says to us, “Take my yoke upon you and learn from me, for I am meek and humble of heart” (Matthew 11:29). Again, the Lord’s humility reveals neither bragging nor false denial of his power, but an acknowledgement of his love for us.

TODAY’S READINGS

Zechariah 9:9–10
Psalm 145:1–2, 8–11, 13–14
Romans 8:9, 11–13
Matthew 11:25–30

“Vengan a mí,
todos los que están fatigados
y agobiados por la carga, y yo los aliviaré”.

MATEO 11:28

HUMILDAD

La humildad es una virtud escasa en el mundo de hoy. Y sin embargo, nuestra lectura del profeta Zacarías describe al rey veniente de Israel, en quien los cristianos vemos a Jesús, como humilde, cabalgando sobre un burrito. No hay gran procesión para nuestro Señor y Dios, porque no viene en un carro dorado con estandartes y una gran procesión de soldados y riquezas, sino sobre una humilde bestia de carga. Qué contraste con nuestro mundo de ropa y coches de diseño; de mega-mansiones y adornos arquitectónicos. La humildad no es presumir de nuestros bienes mundanos o de nuestros logros. Tampoco es la falsa humildad de negar que lo que hacemos bien es “nada”. Es el reconocimiento de nuestras faltas y nuestros éxitos, con un humilde “gracias” al cumplido o a la crítica.

DESDE EL RÍO HASTA LOS ÚLTIMOS RINCONES DE LA TIERRA

¡Cómo anhelamos la paz en el mundo! Pareciera que constantemente estamos rodeados de noticias de muerte y destrucción, ya sea en nuestro país o en el extranjero. Las escuchamos y las lamentamos, tratamos de dar refugio a quienes escapan de la guerra y el crimen en sus países. Oramos por ellos y por nosotros, que el miedo no nos invada y nos haga hacer cosas necias o que nos aprovechemos de personas inocentes. Dios “anunciará la paz a las naciones” (Zacarías 9:10). Podemos confiar en esta promesa de paz, si nos convertimos en personas pacíficas nosotros mismos y no somos vengativos o dejamos que la ira profunda nos domine. “Ustedes no viven conforme al desorden egoísta del hombre, sino conforme al Espíritu” (Romanos 8:9).

VEN A MÍ

Una de las palabras de más consuelo en los evangelios están en la lectura de hoy. “Vengan a mí, todos los que están fatigados y agobiados por la carga, y yo los aliviaré, . . . porque mi yugo es suave y mi carga ligera” (Mateo 11:28, 30). Algunas veces cargamos lo que parece ser una carga difícil, cargamos nuestra cruz. Pero quizá estamos cargando la cruz equivocada. Nuestra cruz, se nos promete, será suave y ligera. Pareciera que esto no es verdad cuando sufrimos la pérdida de un ser querido, quedamos desempleados, perdemos la casa o nuestro sustento. Pero si volteamos hacia Jesús, siempre encontraremos el consuelo y amor bondadoso del Padre, del Hijo y del Espíritu Santo. Los niños voltean hacia nosotros los adultos por consuelo y apoyo, pues Dios ha “escondido estas cosas a los sabios y entendidos, y las ha revelado a la gente sencilla” (Mateo 11:25). Podemos aprender de los niños acerca de nuestra dependencia en Dios.

Y Jesús nos dice “tomen mi yugo sobre ustedes y aprendan de mí, que soy manso y humilde de corazón” (Mateo 11:29). Una vez más, la humildad del Señor no revela arrogancia ni una falsa negación de su poder, sino que revela un reconocimiento de su amor por nosotros.

FEED THE HUNGRY

By feeding others, we too, were fed

The third time he said to him, "Simon son of John, do you love me?"
Peter was hurt because Jesus asked him the third time, "Do you love me?"
He said, "Lord, you know all things; you know that I love you."
Jesus said: "Feed my sheep." John 21:17 NIV

Pop-Food Distribution reaches out to the Rolling Meadows Community! Our FOCUS Youth Ministry and Young Adults took our humble Food Pantry to the NEXT level on the weekend of May 16th and 17th by planning a food collection and then feeding not only the parish community but the surrounding communities.

Talk about living the Gospel of Matthew, we gave food to the hungry, drink to the thirsty and invited the stranger to our home. (Mt. 25:35)

What a wonderful weekend! It felt good to be back serving our community. Although our crew of Focus Teens, Parents, Adult Volunteers of all ages, masked and gloved, had to practice new and different techniques in our preparation of the bags of food and how we interacted with one another, one thing was obvious, the Spirit was on the move that weekend in the lobby of our beloved school!

During this time so many came together to help make this an amazing first event! Some shout-outs! The FOCUS teens and Young Adult Leaders, awesome job taking on the challenge of serving beyond the walls of St. Colette to our Rolling Meadows Community at Large. Parents, Teens, Adult leaders and Adult Volunteers, thank you for your commitment to working within the guidelines to prep the food bags for 140 families! Yes, in the pouring rain, 133 Families received 3 bags of food consisting of fresh produce, a dairy item, drinks and nonperishable staples. Estimated cost in food collection items that were given out exceeded $5,000.00. We were able to provide seven school families a bag of food the next day as well!

THANK YOU! John Baruch, thank you for your behind the scenes efforts in prepping and providing us the space, tables, and refrigeration so we could jump right in on Saturday. City of Rolling Meadows, thank you for the cloth bags. Young adults, what can I say? You rock!! Shopping for fresh produce and dairy made this a first for a giveaway from our pantry with fresh fruits, vegetables, dairy products, bread, and a variety of beverages. In a time when fear can keep us from serving those in need, Teens, Parents and Volunteers thank you for your courage as you all were essential to this success! The amazing work you did from wiping down the products, to sorting and packing the bags of food, and working to maintain social distance, incredible!

Fr. Brian thank you for the Blessing of the Food Donations and Blessing us as volunteers to take on the challenges of this Pop-up Food Distribution, as well as your help with the collection! Fr. Mahonge, we thank you for your support of this endeavor as we provided outreach to the families in need in our Rolling Meadows community. The Pop-up Food Distribution provided an opportunity to experience ongoing fruits that the St. Colette School building offers and can continue to offer our community.

In conclusion, let us continue to follow the lead of such an awesome team who were willing to "serve" and to venture into uncharted areas to feed so many through our St. Colette Food Pantry. Folks, so much goodness poured in and out of those school stairs! How beautiful it is that we fed friends and new acquaintances, providing food for the body and for the soul. Friends, by feeding others we were living the Gospel message! Let us pray we continue this call.
