The Starting Point of Gospel Ministry

Cardinal Blase J. Cupich

The Gospels repeatedly remind us that Jesus always put the needs and sufferings of others before all else. In the parable of the good Samaritan, the Lord makes clear that the moral question before us as we confront the world's sufferings is not, "Who is my neighbor?" — as if we can pick and choose whom we help. Rather, it is, "What does it mean for me to be neighbor to one in need?"

Pope Francis is giving fresh energy to this moral vision by calling the church to be a "field hospital." In doing so, the Holy Father asks us to radically rethink ecclesial life. He is challenging all of us to give priority to the wounded. That means placing the needs of others before our own. Medics who have the bandages go to those with the wounds. They do not sit back in their offices waiting for the needy to come to them. They begin by asking: "How can we help?" This is neither the place nor the time for pre-diagnoses in the form of prejudgments or predeterminations. The starting point for our Gospel ministry, Pope Francis tells us, is the suffering of people, not the sinfulness of people or our perception of their worthiness.

This is the approach I have asked Catholic Charities of the Archdiocese of Chicago to take in addressing the challenges posed by the migrant crisis. Catholic Charities has no role in deciding whether migrants are allowed in the country or are brought to Chicago. Those decisions are made by government officials. However, the church's mission of compassion compels us to help those in need, regardless of their past history, color, religion, nationality or immigration status.

Since fall 2022, Catholic Charities has been working closely with parishes, community partners, the State of Illinois and City of Chicago to respond with compassion to more than 4,000 new arrivals crossing our borders from Central and South America. In fact, Catholic Charities has been asked by the Illinois Department of Human Services to join the state's initiative to transition families out of shelters into stable housing.

With the support of Catholic Charities:

- More than 700 people have been reunited with loved ones in other states,
- about 2,000 people have moved out of shelters and into apartments,
- an additional 2,300 people will soon transition from shelters to apartments,
- seven parishes are accompanying 23 families in their resettlement and integration into new community, and
- more than 200 new arrivals join community suppers five days a week.

While all the help Catholic Charities provides remains impressive, there is more to do, given that:

- Since last August, some 8,100 migrants have arrived in Chicago and the influx is increasing,
- migrant families are sleeping on floors in police districts and outside homeless facilities at O'Hare, and
- many migrants who arrive here need food, water, clothing and medical care.

This is happening; it is a crisis, and we cannot wish this suffering away or make excuses for not addressing these needs for political or ideological reasons. Like those in the Gospel parable of the Good Samaritan, we cannot turn our backs on them, especially if we claim to be a church that takes pride in being a "field hospital." The fact is that people are here and need help. End of story.

Through Catholic Charities, we will continue to work with parishes, other agencies, state and local governments, but we also need the help of all Catholics. I ask you to be extra generous. You can donate at catholiccharities.net/donate. Consider helping as a volunteer by emailing welcomethestranger@catholiccharities.net.

In all of this, let's keep in mind that for Jesus the starting point for Gospel ministry, as Pope Francis reminds us, is the suffering of people, not the sinfulness of people or our perception of their worthiness. Let's give new life to the Lord's call to be the good Samaritan, not by asking who is my neighbor, but by asking what does it mean for me to be neighbor to one in need?

Feast of Corpus Christi: June 10-11

ARCHDIOCESE OF CHICAGO

With the public health emergency attributable to the COVID-19 pandemic having expired, all remaining Archdiocesan COVID-related restrictions are lifted. With that action:

- Sharing of the Common Cup can resume.
- Ministers, regardless of their vaccination status, can bring Holy Communion to the sick and homebound.

The first time the parishioners will be invited to receive the Eucharist under both species will be next weekend, June 10-11 for the Feast of Corpus Christi.

Attention Eucharist Ministers

We need your help as we prepare for the sharing of the Common Cup as mentioned above. Additional ministers will be needed at most masses. Please call Gail at 847-394-8100 and sign up for the Mass that you attend so that we can schedule you to participate as an extraordinary minister of Holy Communion. Thank you for your service and dedication to this calling.

If you would like to join this important ministry, please call Gail at the parish office.

Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ,

With Father's Day next Sunday, I am reminded not only of the importance of the many fathers who tend to their families in our archdiocese, but also of our parish priests who serve as our spiritual fathers. So first, allow me to wish all the fathers in our parishes my heartfelt thanks and congratulations. You truly make a difference in the lives of those who know and love you. As well, Father's Day also gives us an opportunity to thank and support our priests who minister in the Archdiocese of Chicago. These 430 active and 257 retired priests have chosen to dedicate their lives to serving you and your family through pastoral care, celebration of the sacraments, and leadership of our communities of faith.

With this letter I ask you to join me in supporting the health and well-being of our priests by making a generous gift to the Priests' Health and Retirement/PRMAA collection for the benefit of their healthcare and retirement needs. Your sacrifice on their behalf not only contributes to their health and well-being, but it also demonstrates to them your support of their ministry in our parishes and communities.

You might not be aware that this is the only collection for our archdiocesan priests' health and retirement, which totals nearly $13 million annually in health care, nursing, and retirement costs. As well, this collection is separate and distinct from the annual collection for religious order priests, sisters, and brothers.

As I ask you to join me in praying that God continue to bless our dedicated priests, I assure you of my remembrance of you and your families in my prayers and at the Lord's Table.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Archbishop of Chicago

Queridos hermanos y hermanas en Cristo:

Con el Día del Padre el próximo domingo, recuerdo no sólo la importancia de los muchos padres que cuidan a sus familias en nuestra arquidiócesis, sino también la de nuestros párrocos que sirven como nuestros padres espirituales. Así que, en primer lugar, permítanme expresar mi más sincero agradecimiento y felicitación a todos los padres de familia de nuestras parroquias. Ustedes realmente marcan la diferencia en las vidas de quienes los conocen y los aman. El Día del Padre nos da también la oportunidad de agradecer y apoyar a nuestros sacerdotes que ejercen su ministerio en la Arquidiócesis de Chicago. Estos 430 sacerdotes en activo y 257 jubilados han elegido dedicar su vida a servirlos a ustedes y a sus familias mediante la atención pastoral, la celebración de los sacramentos y el liderazgo de nuestras comunidades de fe.

Con esta carta les pido que se unan a mí para apoyar la salud y el bienestar de nuestros sacerdotes haciendo un generoso donativo a la colecta Salud y Jubilación de los Sacerdotes/PRMAA en beneficio de sus necesidades de salud y de jubilación. El sacrificio de ustedes en nombre de ellos contribuye no sólo a su salud y bienestar, sino que también les demuestra su apoyo a su ministerio en nuestras parroquias y comunidades.

Tal vez no sepan que ésta es la única colecta para la salud y jubilación de nuestros sacerdotes arquidiocesanos, cuyos gastos de atención médica, enfermería y jubilación ascienden a casi 13 millones de dólares anuales. Además, esta colecta es separada y distinta de la colecta anual para los sacerdotes, hermanas y hermanos de las órdenes religiosas.

Mientras les pido que se unan a mí en oración para que Dios siga bendiciendo a nuestros abnegados sacerdotes, les aseguro que los recuerdo a ustedes y a sus familias en mis oraciones y en la Mesa del Señor.

Sinceramente suyo en Cristo,

Arzobispo de Chicago

Focused on identity, prayer, vocation, relationships and the Catholic Church's teachings on human sexuality, participants are invited into a new level of freedom to be the gift that God has called them to be. ECHO Chicago will be an overnight retreat that begins on Friday evening, June 23 and concludes on Sunday evening, June 25.

Young adults must be at least 18 years of age and one year out of high school to qualify for the ECHO Chicago 2023. The weekend retreat has limited space so please register early to ensure your spot.
