SS. Cecilia and Colette Parish

Let us welcome together our sister churches and express our gratitude for each of our houses of prayer. As we join together in unity, we send each other greetings of welcome.

All are welcome in His name. Come, let us adore Him!

As I write this on Monday, I have had one listening session which was a very positive experience. But as you are reading this, I will have had three more listening sessions – one in English and two in Spanish. Thank you for coming out to the sessions and for sharing about your parish. We are now one parish with two sites. It will take a while for us to get used to that reality, but it does offer us many opportunities that we did not have before. There is a whole new list of people who can get involved in parish life. I hope we can take advantage of this opportunity

I talked this week to a representative of the Ministers of Care at St. Colette. Ministers of Care visit the sick and the homebound, bringing them communion and praying with them. If there is a homebound person in your home, please call us and we can come out to that person. We also talked about the Anointing of the Sick. This sacrament is given to those who are sick or elderly and need some healing. Unfortunately, some are still functioning with the idea that we should wait to call the priest until the last possible moment, what used to be known as Extreme Unction. We no longer celebrate Extreme Unction. We do anoint those who are gravely ill, but if there is someone in your house who is ill or homebound, there is no reason to wait. Call early so the priest can come while the person is conscious and can give them communion and anointing. If you or someone you love needs the anointing of the sick, please call me at the parish office.

Thank you, and have a great week!

Fr. John
